

HERE'S the POINT

By SPENCE HELD

A Thanksgiving turkey titled "Love Me Tender" will be served to a special San Diego gathering Thursday, Nov. 22.

This Elvis Presley movie will be "for girls only" at a 10 a.m. showing.

No uncouth males in levis will make rude noises while Elvis "sings" and raises goose pimples the size of billiard balls on a multitude of bobby soxers.

The girls can squeal and swoon to their heart's content with no males around to gnash their teeth.

Segregation, huh?

Despite the pluguglies perpetrated by Betty Furness and her male counterparts, I thoroughly enjoyed the dramatic windup of the 1956 Presidential Campaign on TV Tuesday night.

Adlai Stevenson, flanked by his sister (I guess) and a son, who kept blinking back tears, made a gallant and gracious speech conceding defeat.

When he said confidently that Americans would now close ranks and march forward under their chosen leader, I couldn't help thinking how fortunate we are in this country as compared with, say, the people of Hungary.

Or the Russians . . . They've really never known what freedom is.

Stevenson's exhaustion from the rigors of the campaign was evident on his face . . . I had felt, during recent weeks, that there was a good man who had to reach for issues and suffered in the process.

Ike looked very tired. He's aged 20 years since 1932, it seemed to me. The job of being President of the U. S. takes a tremendous toll of a man's health and strength, and the recent flare-ups in Egypt and Hungary must have placed a considerable strain on him, coming as they did right on top of the political campaign.

Nobody, Democrat or Republican, has ever questioned Ike's sincerity. When he said, "I will continue to work for 168 million Americans and for peace in the world," it was obvious to any fair-minded person that he meant just that.

In 1952 I encountered Ike briefly at Lindbergh Field. He was tanned and fit and looked like he enjoyed the enthusiastic reception at the airport.

After the politicians had swarmed over him and the fotogs had taken their pictures, I suddenly found myself standing alone by his car as the parade formed for the ride through the downtown district.

"Good luck to you," I said.

"Thank you," he replied.

Yeah, and it sounded like he meant it . . . I still wish him luck. He'll probably need it, huh?

Pt. Loma Women To Discuss S. D. County Services

What services does San Diego County offer to the mentally ill, the needy, to youth and to the aged? Are these services inadequate for present-day needs?

Point Loma units of the League of Women Voters will attempt to answer these questions when they discuss county services at their November meetings.

The League's Point Loma day unit meets Tuesday, Nov. 13, 9:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Paul Farrar, 4611 Newport. Mrs. Robert Griffin will lead the discussion aided by Mrs. Spencer Rogers, resource.

Teh Council of Churches building, 3901 Lomaland Dr., will be the meeting place for Point Loma's evening unit at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 14. Mrs. Carlos Nuese will be discussion leader; Mrs. Fred Lawrence, resource.

Methodist Church Children Collect $88 To Help UN Children's Fund

On Oct. 30, some 80 boys and girls from the Primary and Junior Departments of Point Loma Methodist Church proudly put on identification tags, took milk cartons with UNICEF stickers and, with adult supervision, went calling on homes in Ocean Beach.

"They had a story to tell," said Mrs. H. T. Stovall, chairman. "A story about what pennies, nickels and dimes can do for the United Nations Children's Fund."

"Proof that they told their story well is the $88 they collected. This sum grows in importance when it is realized that the assisted countries spend an average of $2 for each $1 put up by the Fund."

Mrs. Stovall said the price of a comic book will give a child 56 glasses of milk in Korea; the price of an ice cream cone will protect 10 children from T.B. in Chile; a candy bar's cost will cure a child of yaws in Africa; and the cost of a Coke will pro-

Point Loma Football Team Plays Hoover Friday; Locals Underdogs

Back on the victory trail, Point Loma High School's football team will take on the formidable league-leading Hoover High Cardinals Friday at 8 p.m. at the East San Diego gridiron.

Point Loma showed some of the last season's spark last Friday in defeating Kearny, 27-7, for its first victory of the year.

The Lomans knocked off Hoover 26-0 in 1955. They were "up" for that one, blocking and tackling with a savagery seldom seen anywhere.

However, it would be a miracle if the locals duplicated that feat Friday night. On paper Hoover has too much power for them to handle.

Plenty of football games have been won, though, by fighting underdogs who refuse to concede defeat.

Point Loma's air arm was effective against Kearny last week. Quarterbacks Jerry Booth and Roger Soares alternated throwing to such receivers as Tony Silva, Frank Asaf, Roger Sneed and Fred Gomes.

PLHS Homecoming Friday, Nov. 16

Point Loma High School will have its annual Homecoming celebration Friday, Nov. 16, with the traditional football game, queen activities and half-time show.

The Pointer football team will meet the Mission Bay High Buccaneers in an afternoon game at the local field.

Lomanettes under the direction of Miss Caroline Crosby, faculty sponsor, and Col. Helen Wilson and Maj. Margie Webster will put on a spectacular show at half-time.

The senior class will sponsor the annual Homecoming dance in the Girls' Gym, featuring a popular dance band and the theme "Mardi Gras."

All alumni are cordially invited to participate in these activities. Call the main office of the school for dance reservations.

Deep Sea Anglers Enjoy Surface & Bottom Fishing

With yellowtail and bonito still working the 'Coronado Islands waters in large schools, and with bottom fishing west of Point Loma at its best, deep sea anglers still were able to choose between the two forms of the sport this week but how long the surface season would continue admittedly was in the hands of the weather man.

Yellowtail catches last week ranged from fair to excellent, but a drop in temperature slowed up catches somewhat last week. However, a return to balmy sunny weather was expected to boom the surface sport again and might prolong it indefinitely.

One of the best catches of the week was a haul of 73 yellowtail by a group of nine anglers aboard Olde Ironsides, and six of the nine were credited with full limits.

E. H. Sorg, La Mesa, was one of the sextet limiting on yellows but he figured in a still more amazing incident begun at least two months earlier at the Guadalupe Islands. Fishing from the Sportfisher IV on its southern trip, Sorg bagged a large yellow and marked it with a personal identification disk fastened around his tail. In putting the fish away, a deck hand let it slip from his grasp and go over the side. Sorg was present at the Coronados when the same fish was caught by Bill Karongy, San Diego, and quickly identified the tag.

Bottom catches last week invariably were excellent, and most of the anglers who participated bagged full limits of big red cod, ling, and cow cod.

Award Dinner Set By Moose Lodge

Saturday, Nov. 10 will be Civic Affairs Night at Ocean Beach Moose Lodge 1755.

William Knopp, president of Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce, will make an Award Presentation to Reg Mattson, Moose civic affairs chairman.

Women of the Moose Chapter 1095 will serve a fried chicken dinner at 6:45 p.m.—adults $1 and children 35 cents. "Give the wife a rest and the children a treat, by calling in your reservation to AC-3-6689 or AC-3-0080," they suggested.

6th Grade Class At Loma Portal Sees Planetarium

On a recent Friday evening, the sixth grade class of William Couture, a teacher at Loma Portal Elementary School, visited the Physical Science Department of San Diego State College.

Following a brief introductory talk by Claude F. Merzbacher, a member of the San Diego State College faculty, the children were conducted to the college Planetarium where they observed a simulation of the night sky. Merzbacher pointed out to the children the familiar constellations of Ursa Major, Orion the Hunter, Cygnus the Swan, and many others.

The children were then taken to the observatory where they observed Mars and the Moon through 4-inch, 6-inch and 12-inch telescopes.

The trip was taken as a culminating activity for the class study of "Astronomy in their Science period."

The room mothers of Couture's class who worked on the planning of the trip were Mrs. Robert N. Tytzer, Mrs. John J. Brown, Mrs. John Blackstock, Mrs. H. C. Hormelink and Mrs. H. C. Lank. Transportation was provided by Mrs. J. MacLaggan, John Blackstock, John Brown, H. C. Lank, J. F. Forward, J. Mason and A. Carlson.

United Success Drive Report

Residents who have been missed in the house to house campaign for the United Success Drive were urged yesterday to call Drive Headquarters at AC-3-7191.

Mrs. Percy A. Rooks, Ocean Beach-Pt. Loma area geographic chairman, said that the main campaign office will make arrangements for picking up pledges and contributions. When women volunteers made their house to house calls and callbacks, she said, many residents were not at home. "I'm sure they don't want to be missed and if they will give us the courtesy of a phone call we'll be very glad to pick up their gift," she added.

The Peninsula area geographic total has now reached $11,320 for 42.4 per cent of a $26,702 quota while the over-all drive has climbed to 67.3 per cent of the $2,306,000 needed for the 1957 support of 90 Red Feather services in the county.

FIREMAN'S BALL—It will be held Saturday night, Nov. 17, in the Mission Beach Ballroom, and Gay Cowie, Miss San Diego, shown here with an unidentified fireman, will reign as queen and act as official hostess. Leighton Noble will appear with his fine band and vocalist Maggie Lee. This annual ball is given for the benefit of the Firemen's Relief Association. Tickets are on sale at all city fire stations.

Melodrama Ready To Open Tonight At California Western University

Everything is in readiness for tonight's grand opening of "Gold in the Hills, or The Dead Sister's Secret," the 19th-century melodrama to be presented by the California Western University Players in the Little Theatre on the campus. Performances will be given this Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights at 8:30, and the following week-end on Nov. 16 and 17.

The leading female role of Nellie, the trusting lass who gets turned out of home by her father, will be played by Ann Morgan. The stalwart and honest hero, who loves Nellie despite everything, will be Lowell Allen. The wicked villain, a city-slicker of the worst type, will be Porter G. Weaver.

Other characters in the play will be portrayed by Vivian H. Breenen as Lizzie, the housekeeper; Raymond Sparks as the father; Jean Taylor as Barbara, the naive sister of Nellie; Otto Cramer as Sam Slade, the villain's shadow; Edward Naylor as Jenkins, the constable; and Michael Heylman as little Tommy.

A prologue to this play will be spoken by Gene Kenny, and in the true tradition of the day Alfred L. Hanson will greet the audience as the company manager.

An Olio will be presented between the acts. Songs of the period will be sung by June Hardisty, Nona Turpeau and James P. Wassen, accompanied on the piano by Charlotte Stahl. There will also be a recitation by Wendy Burnett.

Tickets may be obtained at the Administration Building on the campus of California Western University, or by phoning AC-2-6807.

School Propositions Get Big Majorities

Two ballot propositions designed to solve San Diego's critical school problem were given big majorities in Tuesday's election.

Proposition K—a $27 million bond issue for urgently needed schools and facilities—had 86,844 "yes" votes to 20,618 "no" in the tabulation from 575 of the city's 848 precincts.

Proposition L—setting a new tax limit for school operation—led by the comfortable margin of 57,108 to 34,876 in the tabulation.

Proposition H, for a civic auditorium, was defeated. The vote: Yes, 49,342; No, 50,467. This required a two-thirds majority.

The mayor's salary increase (Proposition C) apparently went over. The vote: Yes, 52,400; No, 43,509.

Assemblyman Frank Luckel of Point Loma had almost a 2-to-1 margin over Tom Sherrard to retain his 78th District Assembly seat. The vote: Luckel, 31,831; Sherrard, 16,593.

Congressman Bob Wilson, another Republican, led George Cheney, Democrat, by 85,686 to 43,997.

San Diego County joined the rest of the nation in the Eisenhower landslide, giving him 105,327 votes in 869 of 1440 precincts, to 59,684 for Stevenson. U. S. Sen. Thomas Kuchel was far ahead of Richard Richards, Democrat, in the local balloting.

Proposition 4, the oil conservation measure, was defeated by a big margin.

Eisenhower Wins At Dana Jr. High

An early tipoff on the election came from Dana Junior High School Tuesday.

Principal Clarence Swenson reported the students voted as follows:

Eisenhower 1,357; Stevenson

459.

For U. S. Senator, Kuchel got 1,223 votes and Richards 564, while Assemblyman Luckel led his opponent, Sherrard, 1,259 to 501, and Congressman Wilson had

1,248 to Cheney's 406.

The vote on propositions was as follows: Proposition H (auditorium) Yes, 931; No, 813. Proposition K (schools) Yes, 1,502; No, 266. Proposition L (schools) Yes, 988; No, 710.

Swenson said the Dana election was held by the U. S. History classes, with all students voting. It is held every four years at the time of the Presidential election, he said.

Mr. Bush teaches mathematics.

San Valley was the former address of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Hope and their two small daughters, Peggy and Karen. They have bought a home with a view in the 1100 block of Bangor St.

Commanding a view of the bay and city and overlooking the Naval Training Station is the hillside home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fulkerson, who used to live at 2700 Chatsworth Blvd. The new home, in the 3200 block of Poe St., is one of the unusual homes recently built on the Point. The Fulkersons hope to have every thing completely arranged by Christmas when they have planned a family gathering there.

Mr. and Mrs. John Luz, of 3341 Canon Rd., have moved into their brand new home in the 3000 block of Yonge St. They have two children, Virginia, 11, and John, 8. Their new home affords spacious areas for family activities. Mr. Luz is a commercial fisherman and part-owner of "White

A WELL-FED BABY IS A HAPPY BABY. Today, with such a wide variety of Junior glass-packed foods available, there is no reason for the fussiest eater to become bored with his diet. The young eater becomes conscious first of flavor and texture of food, and then with its color. Experts say color and flavor play an important part in the child's likes and dislikes of foods. With glass-packed foods, a child can see the food and it is wise to let him choose occasionally what he wants to eat. It's almost certain he will eat what he selects. Just open the jar and let him feed himself. His first attempts may be a messy operation but don't discourage this interest in self-feeding. If he uses his fingers—and he undoubtedly will—let him. He'll learn the art of spoon-feeding later on. If you squelch his efforts at feeding himself, you may find yourself with a 22-month old child who will keep wanting you to feed him.

It's Your BUSINESS!
BY BEECHER DIXON
GENERAL MANAGER, SAN DIEGO BETTER BUSINESS BUREAU

Most door-to-door salesmen are reputable, law-abiding people, but the buying public must be constantly alert to peddlers throughout San Diego who thrive on the gullible.

Next time a stranger knocks, first find out the name and address of the firm which the salesman represents. You have a perfect right to demand identification of both the seller and his product. In fact, any solicitor or salesman operating in San Diego and most surrounding areas must have proper authority from local police.

Don't be in a hurry to sign anything which might obligate you against your will. Written agreements should be read carefully and slowly, for any document bearing your signature is binding. Be sure to keep a copy of any contract you sign.

Check up and down your block first before accepting a salesperson's word that your neighbor will vouch for him, and don't be taken in by an offer of a discount on items such as autos, radios, ranges, refrigerators and TV sets. Chances are he'll jack up his selling price to cover his "price reduction."

ACCIDENT INSURANCE
One of the statisticians has come up with the alarming discovery that some 10 million Americans suffered a disabling accident last year. Five times as many more were ill. Losses in income alone through accidents and sickness exceeded $4 billion. For most Americans, accident and health insurance is a necessity. However, when you purchase a policy, be sure you understand all phases, its limitations and what benefits are paid.

Send a dime to your Better Business Bureau, Spreckels Bldg., San Diego, for a helpful 16-page booklet, "Facts You Should Know About Accidents and Health Insurance."

KNOW YOUR REPAIRMAN
Be cautious about letting strangers take your lawn and garden equipment with them, for repair without first investigating their names, addresses and telephone numbers.

One kindly old lady permitted an unknown television repairman to pick up her costly set for a checkup back at his "shop." She never did see her set again. It probably was peddled in a nearby state.

Your best bet is to deal with established merchants in your own neighborhood or city.

Durable, Decorative Top
A QUICK way to make a battered dresser top look like new is to cover it with a piece of Marlite. With its baked plastic surface and its Masonite tempered hardboard base, this predecorated paneling stays attractive even when subjected to impact, cigarette burns and spilled cosmetics.

Particularly suitable for dresser tops are the various marble patterns, reproduced from rare imported stone, and authentic wood grains in which Marlite is available.

From the wide selection of the panel for the top may be chosen to contrast dramatically with the dresser finish, or to blend with it. Plain colors in wide variety also are available. The predecorated hardboard, wall and ceiling paneling sold by lumber dealers, is cut to size with an ordinary cross-cut saw. To assure a neat cut, saw with the finished side up. Then simply smooth the edges with a block plane or sandpaper and wax or paint the edges.

The new Marlite dresser top can just be laid in place. Or, for more security, seems advisable, it may be bonded with wallboard adhesive or held by glass holds available in hardware stores.

Dr. Will Durant To Talk Sunday

Dr. Will Durant, world famous historian and philosopher, will speak at the San Diego Open Forum next Sunday, Nov. 11, 8 p.m. on the subject "What Are the Lessons of History?" Forum meetings are held in the First Unitarian Church, 6th Ave. and Cedar St.

Will Durant's "The Story of Philosophy" was the first of his books to take scholarship into the average home. Published in 1926 the book has sold over 2,000,000 copies and promises to hold a lasting place in American literature. Additional books by Durant include: "The Story of Civilization," "Caesar and Christ," "The Life of Greece," and "The Age of Faith."

Dr. Durant is one of America's most popular platform lecturers. At his last Forum appearance in San Diego two years ago many were turned away for lack of seating space.

The lecture will be followed by a question and answer period. The public is admitted free at 7:45 p.m. after Forum members have been seated.

Jerry Howes Wed To Errol Plaisted

Miss Jerry Anne Howes became the bride of Errol Plaisted, Oct. 27, in an early evening ceremony at the Point Loma Community Church. The Rev. Leon Raines officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Norman Howes, of 3753 Warner St. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Plaisted, of 4769 Orchard Ave.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white net, trimmed in chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil was caught in a crown of seed pearls. She carried a yellow-throated orchid with stephanotis.

Donna Lynn Howes, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore a gown of gold crystal, trimmed with velvet. The matron of honor, Mrs. Shelley Priest, of Spring Valley and cousin of the bride, wore matching orchid crystallette with velvet trim. Both carried bouquets of purple and brown chrysanthemums.

Leland Plaisted, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Bob Peltcher and Paul Ward, of Ocean Beach.

After the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the patio of the bride's parents. Mrs. Howes received in a gown of beige lace and wore a shoulder orchid.

SMOOCHING 'BARRED'

Oklahoma City (AFPS)—Kissing has been "barred" for prisoners at the city jail here. The police inspector was shocked recently when he sauntered into the jail lounge and found some of the inmates "smooching" with wives and sweethearts. From now on visitors will be separated by jail bars.

IN THE SOUP!

Portland, Maine (AFPS)—Here's a tasty story. A citizen called police here and complained that someone had poured tomato soup all over his car—every night for a week.

EGGS-ASPERATING

Hightstown, N. J. (AFPS)—This "yolk" wasn't too funny to the driver. When a Pennsylvania railroad locomotive collided at a rural crossing here recently with a truck loaded down with 12,000 eggs, more than 1,000 of the eggs were scrambled, cracked, broken, or frozen on the pavement.

Camellia Society To Meet Friday

The San Diego Camellia Society will hold its first meeting of the season at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 9, in the Floral Building in Balboa Park. The public is invited.

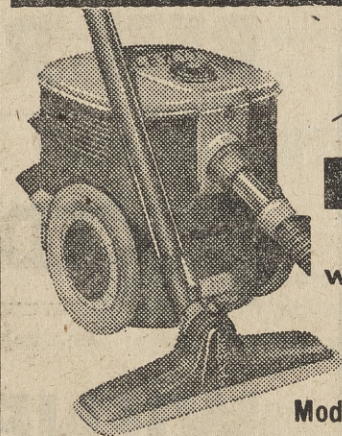

Frank D. Williams of Beverly Hills will be the guest speaker. Owner of the largest amateur camellia collection on the Pacific Coast, Williams has some 2,500 different varieties of camellias in his gardens. He will highlight his talk with full color slides of many new varieties of camellias and will show color slides of a number of orchids.

The meeting also will feature the first blossom display of the season by the local Camellia Society. Dr. Willis H. Miller, president, said yesterday the display will be a miniature camellia show. He urged visitors as well as society members to bring all their camellia blossoms and promised a large selection of early blooming varieties. Blooms and flower arrangements will be judged and awards made to all winners.

"TURKEY TIME" Dessert!

WITH A WONDERFUL THANKSGIVING DINNER cleared away—there's still dessert to consider! Pumpkin Chiffon Pie—light, fluffy, elegant! And for a special touch, fold a half cup of tender, flaked coconut into the mixture before chilling, then glamorize the top with a drift of white flakes.

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| 1 envelope (1 tablespoon) gelatin | 1/4 teaspoon ginger |
| 1 1/4 cup cold water | 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg |
| 1 1/4 cups mashed cooked pumpkin | 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon |
| 3/4 cup evaporated milk | 2 egg whites |
| 1/2 cup water | 1/4 teaspoon vanilla |
| 2 egg yolks, slightly beaten | 1 cup Baker's Angel Flake coconut (toasted if desired) |
| 3/4 cup brown sugar, firmly packed | 1 baked nine-inch pie shell |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | |
| 1/2 cup cream, whipped and sweetened | |

Soften gelatin in cold water. Combine pumpkin, evaporated milk, water, egg yolks, 1/2 cup of the sugar, salt, and spices in top of double boiler. Cook over boiling water 10 minutes, stirring constantly. Add gelatin and stir until dissolved. Chill until slightly thickened.

Beat egg whites until foamy. Add remaining sugar gradually and continue beating until stiff. Fold in pumpkin mixture, vanilla, and 1/4 cup of the coconut. Spoon into cold pie shell. Chill until firm. Before serving, top with whipped cream and remaining coconut.

Note: 1 1/4 cups whole milk may be substituted for the 1/2 cup evaporated milk and 1/2 cup water in the above recipe. (ANS)

LIGHT EATER

Oakland, Calif. (AFPS)—Herman Taylor is what you might call a "light" eater. When the city jail here recently served up a breakfast of cornmeal mush, coffee, toast and peaches, the 55-year-old Taylor just munched on a 150-watt electric bulb. "I'm an unemployed glass eater," he explained.

MR. SYPE SAYS:

"We like our Clover Leaf milk better than any milk we have ever used. We visited the local dairy and saw the newest in dairy equipment, the choicest of cows and the most modern plant of Clover Leaf Dairy. We feel good to have our milk produced by this fine dairy."

Clyde Goff, left, delivers the weekly supply of Clover Leaf milk to the Sipe family, of Fletcher Hills. "Since changing to a local rich milk we use more than ever before and that's good."

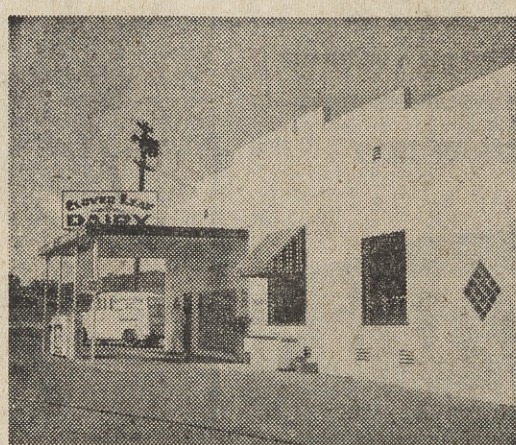

You Too, Friends will agree there's nothing like Clover Leaf Dairy Milk, delivered direct from our own local, modern dairy in El Cajon Valley. You get a fresher milk direct from the producer. It has to be fresh. It's richer because you get pure milk. It's consistent each trip from the one herd of dairy cattle. Children Play Darts on Marlite Wainscot

In a child's room, the lower wall area or wainscot is subject to a considerable beating which necessitates frequent redecorating. On the market is a wall material which is ideally suited for the wainscot. Known as Marlite, a decorated hardboard with a plastic surface, these panels never need redecorating.

Those shown are planks 16" wide. They are easy to put up, as they have tongue and groove edges and metal clips which enable even an amateur craftsman to put them up accurately. These particular planks have a wood-grain finish. Others come in pastel colors.

So durable are these planks, youngsters can play a target game drawn on them with a wax crayon. They use suction-cupped darts. Marks like the ones made for the target are removed with a damp cloth. The durable material under the plastic finish is time-tried Masonite Presdwood.

Of course, the wainscot may be full-width, 4' panels of Marlite. Recommended for the upper walls and ceiling are blocks, 16" square, which come in the same variety of patterns and shades as the planks. All are available at lumber yards.

Figure flattery is yours in this Fall duo. "Revel" bra features reinforced side sections to hold bosom front and forward. Of nylon taffeta and sheer, it has pretty pink and white embroidery. With it is a new "Dress-Sized" girdle of nylon power net. High-rising waist is embroidered to match bra. It comes in misses' dress sizes 10 to 20.

A glance into the crystal ball of fashion reveals a soft, feminine look for Fall.

New York and Paris designers are showing gently clinging dresses with slim skirts and Empire bodices or softly bloused tops, suits with sheath skirts and short, semi-fitted jackets.

To help you achieve the smoothly molded lines these clothes demand, the Formfit company has created a wonderful new collection of foundationwear.

Biggest news are the "Dress-Sized" girdles in misses' dress sizes 10 to 20. Never before have foundations been available in dress sizes.

Sixteen Puppies—A 'Litteral' Record

Dinner time—and these sixteen German Shepherd puppies, all from the same litter, gather round a giant bowl of dog food at the home of Mrs. Lela Patrick, 1032 East 28th Street, Los Angeles. They're all doing fine and so is the puppies' proud mother. Believed to be a record-setter as far as the size of litters are concerned, she was weaned and raised on Walter Kendall's kibbled dog food. Along with the more than 22 million other dogs in the U.S., these puppies will share the spotlight of National Dog Week, this year.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Ghostly figures flit through the dark. Weird shrieks and laughter make the night mysterious. It was Halloween again, the "hallowed eve" of All Saints' Day, when the souls of the departed are supposed to revisit the earth. Originally a religious observance, Halloween was transformed by popular superstitions, some of them dating from the pre-Christian era, into the festival of witches, spooks, and hobgoblins that we in the United States know today. Spooks and demons today have been reduced to decorations and costumes for a children's party, but they were real and terrifying to our ancestors.

For centuries superstition was a powerful force in all aspects of life. Take medicine, for example. What do you think of this prescription:

"A wolf's liver infused in wine, the lard of a lean sow, fed on vegetables and asses' flesh, together with the broth."

Or how about:

"The smoke of dried cow dung, drawn through a reed and the tips of bullock's horns, burnt and powdered and mixed with honey."

These, believe it or not, are old "cures" for tuberculosis which, centuries ago, as today, was one of the greatest health problems facing mankind. The first "cure" dates from ancient times, the second was in vogue as late as the American Revolution.

In recent years these superstitions have been replaced by more effective treatment, most recently the use of specific drugs. Unfortunately, the decline of superstitions regarding tuberculosis has not converted the disease into a "party."

This serious disease must be found early and treated promptly if the victim is to have a good chance for recovery and a return to a useful life. Tuberculosis treatment has come a long way from wolf's liver and cow dung.

(This column is sponsored, in the interest of better health, by the San Diego County Tuberculosis and Health Association and the Peninsula News.)

500 Delegates From 168 Churches To Attend Presbyterian Meeting

Presbyterian ministers and laymen representing 168 Southland churches will gather next Tuesday, Nov. 13 at First Presbyterian Church, Pomona, for the first meeting of the winter session of Presbytery of Los Angeles. Starting time for the meeting is 10 a.m.

Welcoming the anticipated 500 delegates, who will come from Los Angeles, Orange, and San Diego counties, will be the Rev. Gordon A. McGrane, pastor of the host church.

One of the first items of business will be the induction of Dr. Andrew MacCormick as moderator of the presbytery to serve for the coming term of six months. Dr. MacCormick is pastor of First Presbyterian Church, San Pedro, and as moderator he will serve as leader of approximately 115,000 Presbyterians in the Southland.

He was elected to the moderatorship Sept. 12 by delegates attending the meeting of presbytery, at Pacific Palisades. He succeeds Dr. S. Dean McBride, pastor of Point Loma Community Church.

Agenda for the meeting will be introduced by Dr. Arthur T. Bailey, stated clerk pro tem and pastor of Eagle Rock Presbyterian Church, who will also serve as chief expediter of the business session.

The presbytery will recess at 1:30 for the traditional worship service, with the sermon by Retiring Moderator McBride.

The entire evening session, starting at 7:30, will be given over to the report of the presbytery's Committee on Candidates, when young men and women preparing for full-time church careers will be introduced to the presbytery.

Write-on Door Right for Boy

This lad can do his homework on the door anytime he likes because the door is covered with Marlite, a pre-decorated hardboard with a baked-on plastic finish that is impervious to scratches and dirt. A damp cloth removes both dirt and arithmetic problems from the Marlite woodpanel walls and the blackboard-in-reverse snow white door.

Nelsons Return From 5-Week Trip

A five-week touring itinerary took Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nelson and his brother, George, through 25 states and Canada on their recent vacation. They have returned now to their home at 2253 Sunset Cliffs Blvd.

Highlights of the trip included ten days in New York City during which they attended a World Series game, a tour through the New England states which had just changed to its colorful fall ensemble, and a visit to Niagara Falls.

The return trip included Washington, D. C., Virginia and the southern states.

"The most wonderful spot we found is Ocean Beach," said Mrs. Nelson. "Seriously, we think anyone who does not live here is a victim of circumstances."

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grawe, of 3872 Coronado Ave., became parents of a baby daughter Sunday, Nov. 4. She was born at La Mesa Community Hospital.

The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holman of Ocean Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Grawe of Worthington, Ia.

Dutch Treat With Shoo Fly Pie

Shoo Fly Pie, regional dessert specialty from the Pennsylvania Dutch, is a rich and fragrant treat for harvest menus. Really a pie-pudding with its sugar-crumbed top layer, it claims the delicate flavors of unsulphured molasses and spices. You'll find Shoo Fly Pie most simple to assemble. Flour, sugar and spices are measured out, and butter cut into them. This crumb mixture is spooned into an unbaked pastry shell over a liquid mixture made with molasses and water. The pie is ready to be baked without further ado. A lemon sauce may accompany each serving of the pie if desired.

SHOO FLY PIE

1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup unsulphured molasses
1/2 cup water
1/2 teaspoon soda

Sift together flour, sugar, nutmeg, cinnamon and salt. Add butter; cut in with two knives or pastry blender to resemble coarse crumbs. Combine unsulphured molasses, water and soda. Pour into unbaked pastry shell; spoon crumbs over top. Bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) 35 minutes. If desired, top each serving with *Lemon Sauce.

YIELD: 1 9-inch pie.

*Lemon Sauce

2 tablespoons cornstarch
2 cups boiling water
1/2 cup sugar
3 tablespoons lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon grated lemon rind
1/2 cup butter or margarine

Mix together cornstarch, sugar and salt in saucepan. Gradually stir in boiling water. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture boils and is thickened and clear. Remove from heat; stir in remaining ingredients. Serve warm.

YIELD: 2 1/2 cups.

WASHINGTON AND

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

It is interesting to note both political parties in their platforms deal with subject of high taxation.

In fact, both platforms reflect the views of the nation's independent businessmen as expressed through the National Federation of Independent Business, as well as news on balancing the budget. In both parties there was recognition of the soundness of these views.

Strangely, no one comes out for higher taxes; no one comes out against a balanced budget, yet somebody must hold such feelings. Last session of Congress passed big peace-time appropriations in nation's history. These money bills were signed into law by administration. Majority of Congress was of party opposite to that of administration.

So mystery deepens. Just who is for higher taxes; against a balanced budget? Last session of Congress gave everybody ample opportunity to do something to both lower taxes, balance budget. For example, concrete action still waits on Reed Dirksen proposed amendment to Constitution to limit, except in times of war, income tax on both individuals and corporations to a maximum of 25%.

This amendment would also knock out $10 billion in government spending; close government out of 700 to 800 business enterprises ranging from coffee roasting to electric power generation, which represents a total of $50 billion, or $1,250 per average American family.

© National Federation of Independent Business

Then Congress had before it an amendment proposed by Sen. Harry Byrd, Virginia democrat, and Sen. Styles Bridges, New Hampshire Republican, which would require Congress to stay in session each year until it balanced the budget.

This is sometimes called the "put up or shut up" amendment. If Congress wanted to go hog wild on expenditures, well and good. But before scooting off to mingle with the home folks, Congress would also have to levy new taxes to meet the new expenditures. This would be a powerful force for governmental economy, its sponsors believe.

Then there is the Reed-Wallace amendment enacted upon. This would clarify the Constitution by permitting states to initiate amendments to the Constitution. Thus when 32 states sent resolutions of identical content requesting an amendment, Congress would have to submit it to all the states. If 36 states ratified the amendment, it would be part of the Constitution.

This would give the states power to limit federal expenditures and taxes, and thus return government more closely to grass roots control.

In fact, many state, county and city governments are limited in the amount they can tax. Usually such laws were passed through the initiative and referendum system on those states.

So the problem of taxes, the problem of a balanced budget, are perhaps not so great as campaigning oratory would imply.

There are ways to solve these problems, and solutions have been proposed by some very sound American statesmen. Now that both party platforms are committed to these objectives, it is possible action will result.

Parochial Schools In S. D. Diocese To Participate In Education Week

Enrollment in the parochial schools in the Diocese of San Diego has reached an all-time high of 25,176 but many prospective students are still on waiting lists due to acute teacher shortages and restricted expansion programs.

These facts were revealed by the Very Rev. Joseph N. Stadler, Diocesan school superintendent, as he announced Diocesan participation in American Education Week Nov. 11-17.

The Diocese includes San Diego, San Bernardino, Imperial and Riverside Counties and all elementary schools, high schools and colleges are planning special programs and open house for the observance.

In his statement on the enrollment, the Rev. Stadler said: "While this record enrollment of 25,176 represents a substantial increase over last year's 22,000 students, it does not come near to meeting the demand. Most schools report waiting lists for the primary and lower elementary grades and less than three-fourths of applicants for admission into Catholic High Schools can be accommodated."

"A severe teacher shortage and our limited budget for ever-increasing building needs restrict the expansion program so necessary to keep abreast with the growth in population and continued trend toward large families. Currently, we have a teaching force of 429 sisters, 64 priests and 123 lay teachers assigned to
